Level Completion Certificate

This is to certify that:

hiba mouhsin

Successfully completed

Computer Essentials

In this course, the student learned the necessary concepts in the basics of the computer and dealing with all its components, such as input and output tools, storage and compression units, networks, security and protection, and how to control the computer in general. The course is part of the ICDL-Base series of two (2) hours of interactive training.

Hiba abu Odwan

Scan code to verify the certificate

15/6/2026